Her Name is Deborah

HUUSD’s Women in Seminary (WinS) hosted last week’s chapel service to close out Women’s History Month. “Deborah. Her Name is Deborah. Deborah is a Judge” was the topic of the dialogue where students and alumnae engaged in a rich discussion on the personhood and legacy of Deborah; one of the Bible’s often hidden but powerful figures. MDiv student Pauline Rose Moore moderated the conversation.

8th ANNUAL SEMINARIANS’ DAY OF PREACHING NEW
Wednesday, April 12, 2017, 5pm - 7pm | Dunbarton Chapel (Houston Hall, 1st Floor)

The Howard University School of Divinity’s Chapel program will host the 8th Annual Seminarians’ Day of Preaching, on Wednesday, April 12, 2017, 5pm-7pm, Dunbarton Chapel. Inaugurated in Spring 2009, Seminarians’ Day of Preaching was birthed to provide students, particularly those nearing graduation, a supplemental opportunity to preach in a community-wide chapel service. This year’s program is themed, “Looking Forward: Sermons on Creation and Resurrection.” This is a non-competitive, peer-affirming worship service intended to enrich the worship life of our chapel program. Please plan to attend and invite your friends and family.
